BUY EARLY

THE effect of the great war on Men's Clothing will be felt this spring—still more next fall.

We have had to buy with greater care and discrimination than ever, to protect our customer against poor fabrics.

That's why we appreciate having a line of medium-priced clothes for men and young men that is absolutely dependable—Clothcraft.

Every piece of cloth that enters the factory is tested mechanically to determine its strength and chemically to prove its ingredients. This is but the first of a long series of safeguards that protect Clothcraft values.

But don't wait too long, there'll be greater demand this spring for nationally known value like Clothcraft. Buy early Clothcraft Clothes $10 to $20

Well February is gone and spring will soon be here. In a short time the spring sunshine will come, the farmers will begin to master up their tools and hitch up the old roan horse and begin to scatter the oats and grass seed, and the birds will begin to warble, flowers bloom and the earth will swell with sweet perfume, the cows will begin to roam over the hills in quest of green vegetation. Then will come the convention, and Wilson will be nominated and all things will move on lovely.

L. H. Rice has been changed from here to Paris and given a regular job braking and some one is shedding tears.—Rev. Masters, of Corbin has closed a series of meetings at the Christian church.

If we had lots of just such preachers the devil sure would have to go out of business.—The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Evans, that had his leg so badly cut, is rapidly improving.—Ed Herd is working a few days at East Bernstadt.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker visited Mrs. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ponder, of this place Sunday.—Uncle Pete Bryant is very low and not expected to live but a short time.—Charley Harris, of Virginia, was here a few days ago en route to Cincinnati.—Mrs. Sam Hellard is the new "hello girl" at the exchange now.—Dr. W. T. Amyx, Thomas Jones, C. E. and C. H. Rice and John N. Clark were summoned to London court Tuesday.—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Griffin will go to housekeeping in the Drummond property on Main street Wednesday.—Mrs. C. A. Blanford, after a few days visit with relatives in Louisville has returned home.—Thomas Moore, who has been living at Butler, has moved his family back to Livingston.—Little John Thomas Mullins is spending a few days with his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lair.

Mrs. G. V. Calloway is spending a few days with relatives in Paris.—Mrs. Samuel Ward is visiting relatives in Lebanon Junction this week.—A little child of Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold has been very sick for a few days.—J. W. Biggins who has been very sick for a few days is able to leave his room again.—Miss Mae Evans was taken quite sick at school at Mt. Vernon and had to return home but at present she is much better.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gray, after five months stay with relatives in California, have returned home.—Judge S. D. Lewis, of Mt. Vernon, was in our town Tuesday.—John Seburn has purchased a farm up Rockcastle river and moved his family there, and I. W. Catlin has moved into the property vacated by Mr. Seburn.—Mr. and Mrs. Oby Sams are moving to Barbourville this week.—Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Griffin went to Louisville Tuesday. Mr. Griffin went to buy his spring stock of goods.—Dr. R. G. Webb was called to Hazel Patch Tuesday on account of so much sickness in that locality.

It frequently occurs, he said, that local influence almost compels a magistrate to hold out for the improvement of some unimportant section of a road that passes some body's farm, while other Magistrates are subjected to pressure in other quarters and among them they would fritter a bond issue away on patch work to the neglect of the main thoroughfares. He said he believed many Magistrates would be glad to have this relief. The bill gives the Fiscal Court full freedom to act; but when the Magistrates disagree or a percentage of the citizens unite in petitioning for a certain route, the Road Commissioner is made referee. —(State Journal, Frankfort.)

If the needed sum for the auditorium is not raised, says Uncle Ajax, the people should take what they have and build a mansione in which to bury all civic pride.—Louisville Newspaper.

If a sufficient amount is not subscribed to erect the auditorium, there will be no need for any mansione, for the simple reason no civic pride can be found; "no rich animal" will be a loose in the city. If liberated it would be swatted before it could travel from the city hall to the court house.

"We can, we will, in Louisville," is the slogan of the city by the Falls, and the State's metropolis, again demonstrated its right ful claim to the six words contained in the above slogan. The business and professional men of that live city have just raised, after a few day's canvass the sum of $250,000 to be used in the construction of an auditorium. The soliciting committees will continue the work until the sum reaches $30,000.

KNOX, Laurel and Rockcastle counties should seriously consider the Dixie Highway situation, as shown by a dispatch from Chattanooga in Monday's Courier Journal (and copied elsewhere in this issue of the Signal) and to make every possible effort to get the Dixie-Boone constructed through their territory during 1916, and gain the great tourist route.

THE Atlanta Constitution of Feb. 20th had a full-page article and a map of Eastern Division of Dixie Highway, by A. F. Sanford, one of Knoxville's good roads men. A copy can be seen at the store of U. G. Baker, or Fish & Son, and county clerk's office. Of course, Mt. Vernon is on this map. She is on all of them since Boone Way was anchored thereon.

A KENTUCKY Judge is after the society women in Madisonville for playing bridge. And in Virginia the Legislature has been talking about abbreviated skirts. But no blim-blam blanket Judge or Legislature can take away from woman the prerogative of the last word. (Columbia Record.)

AN EXCHANGE says all chickens come home to roost. Yes, but some of them frequently get back to the parental roof only a short time before daylight. (Danville Messenger.)

This sounds Landsomesque and somewhat Woltonese.

SINCE the recent decision of the Court of Appeals that only a majority is required, instead of two-thirds of the vote cast, in road bond elections, a greater impetus has been given road building throughout the state.

THE greatest battle that has ever been fought in the history of the world has been in progress for eleven days around Verdun, France, between the German and French armies. The slaughter is appalling.

Now that old-time furniture is coming back in style, we expect at any minute for father to crawl under the house and drag out the horse-hair sofa and the what-not. (Macon News.)

THE Interior Journal is now suing a four page, seven-column paper on Tuesday, and eight pages on Friday to its 1,000 subscribers.

LOUISVILLE good roads advocates are preparing to resist efforts to divert travel from the Western Dixie Highway.

THE Germans say they believe the war is nearing an end. The British and French seem to think otherwise.

GET into the road-boosting game.

THE Boone Trail Highway Association of North Carolina are making arrangements to erect a monument to the memory of Daniel Boone at Washington City

KNOXVILLE BOOSTERS COMING

One hundred Knoxville business men will visit sections of Kentucky, North Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee, between April 11th and 14th. This party will represent all of the big commercial and industrial organizations in Knoxville. Manufacturers, bankers, wholesalers, retailers and professional men have arranged to go on Knoxville's first trade trip. A special train will be secured to accommodate the Knoxville trade builders. The committee in charge has announced that every effort will be made to make the trip of mutual advantage to business men of the forty-three towns which will be visited. The Knoxville Board of Commerce has arranged the tour so that the members may come in personal touch with the business men throughout Knoxville's trade territory. One of the slogan's of the party is "Get Acquainted." Stress has been laid upon the fact that the men who will make the trip are just as anxious to buy as they are to sell. This is the first tour of the kind ever undertaken by the Knoxville Board of Commerce and it is expected to be profitable to both the visitors and the visited.

The personnel of the party is made up of the most prominent men of Knoxville. Practically every big enterprise in that city has signified its intention of having a representative make the four days trip on the special train. Commercial bodies in many of the towns and cities to be visited have already arranged a program for the entertainment of the visitors. These programs include banquets, automobile trips, inspection tours' parades, speech makings and hand shakings galore. Committees in other towns are planning novel ways to get acquainted in the shortest time. The Knoxville Committee is delighted with the enthusiasm which the announcement of the trade-trip schedule has created. Every effort is being made by them to co-operate with the local trade bodies in their entertainment plans, so that the trip may be of mutual profit and pleasure. It is considered one of the most important steps ever taken in the building of a closer relationship between the small town merchant and manufacturer and the Knoxville merchant and manufacturer, and promises to be one of the most successful trade trips ever made in the south.

The committee in charge are endeavoring to impress upon the commercial bodies in the towns to be visited that this trade trip isn't made for selfish motives. The social and the personal contact features are considered the most important, and every effort will be made by the men of the "special" to make real friends of the men they meet along the route. The Knoxville wholesalers want to visit the stores of the men to whom they have sold goods in the past. The retailer wants to meet the men who have bought their supplies from him. The bankers in the party want to know the bankers in other towns and cities, and so on through the list. Of course, every man in the party wants to increase the business he is now doing but what is more important, every one of them wants to know from whom to purchase some of the products of the sections visited.

The special train to be used in transporting the party through East Tennessee, Western Kentucky, Southwestern Virginia, and the Western portion of North Carolina, will consist of eight all-steel Pullman coaches, including two dining cars. It will be completely fitted out with all conveniences of modern travel and will be the home of the men composing the party for the four days of their trip. Knoxville literature, business catalogues, advertising novelties and souvenirs will all find a place on the "special". Knoxville's business men are undertaking the trip in a whole-hearted way which assures its success, and are planning to do things on a big scale. A band will accompany the party to furnish music at all entertainments, and is calculated to make an impression wherever seen. One member of the trade trip party is reported to have balked at the striped umbrella, but, upon being told that it would help him make a vivid impression upon strangers, he consented to carry it.

The keynote of the whole trip and of the men who are behind it, is a desire for personal acquaintance. Many of these men will be reputation and business dealers, those they will meet upon this trip. They believe that by getting acquainted their circle of friends will be widened, their business increased and their past and prospective prospects placed in a friendly relationship, which would be impossible without knowing them individually.

A Distinctive Reason

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder?

There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.

This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.

There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder

Cas Cox, the barber man, has been from Bernstedt once again. He learns that old man S. K. Unk is manufacturing that old reliable new mown hay perfume. Cas says it would smell as sweet under any other name. Owing to its high price and tall smelling qualities of S. K. Unk's outfit, the barber shop will stick to its present brand of cologne. W. E. Zell causes a commotion, now and then, in the C. H. Icken family. Old Terra Pint will be 107 years old next birth day. The S. Q. Irrell folks are housed for the winter. Mr. B. F. Rogg will return in the spring. Old Billy G. Oat will have Cas Cox to trim his whiskers if Nancy doesn't pull them out. Fish W. Orms will go to Rockcastle river in the spring to visit Sal Mou and the family of J. Ack Fish. Little M. O. Use had a narrow escape when chased by old Thomas C. At a few days since, Guinea H. Enn and P. C. Ock keep up almost a constant noise and racket.

GOOD SHOWING.

The following item from a Paris paper makes a good showing for Paris as a "dry" town compared with Paris as a "wet" town:

"The official statement of the City Collector and Treasurer, C. K. Thomas, of Paris, shows a most gratifying condition of the city treasury with no tax increase and without saloon revenue the city showing a surplus of $10,848.44. For the year 1915, with the saloon out and no revenue from that source, and with the same tax rate, there was a greater surplus by $2,381.79 than in the year 1914, with the additional income from the saloon license."

"Uncle Bob" Bates, of Whitesburg, Letcher county Civil War Veteran, ex-sheriff and legislator, is perhaps the most remarkable man in Kentucky. Recently he celebrated his ninety-sixth birthday, enjoys good health, is active and can walk long distances with out fatigue. He has been married three times, and a short time ago became the father of a bright boy, making the twenty-fourth child that has come to bless his name. In speaking of his record, "Uncle Bob" says his descendants number nearly 200 grandchildren, about 150 great grand children. At the recent election he walked to his voting place, seven miles away, and returned before noon, completing the 14-mile journey without the least fatigue. During the unpleasantness between the States "Uncle Bob" cast his fortunes with the South, became a colonel and saw service in many a memorable conflict. At one time several years ago he was elected sheriff of Letcher county and in earlier years served two terms in the Kentucky legislature.

Under the rules of the Jr. O. U. A. M. the insurance on a deceased brother will not be paid unless some member belonging to the same Council as the deceased brother, saw and identified the deceased as being the right person. This being the case the council in Cincinnati to which Elmer Harris who was killed at Winchester about two weeks ago belonged refused payment unless some member of that Council could identify the body as that of Elmer Harris. In order that the family might be able to collect the insurance, the Cincinnati Council sent a representative here yesterday, with Sheriff Cam Mullins, and a number of other members of the local councils, under orders of the court went to-day and opened the grave of Harris, who was readily recognized as being the right man, and the insurance, amounting to $500, will be paid promptly. Harris' body was badly mangled at his head, which was cut from the body was uninjured, naturally easily recognized.

The Republicans of Rockcastle County met in mass convention in the court house in Mt. Vernon Feb. 26th, and held an enthusiastic meeting. Precinct Committees were selected to serve for the ensuing four years. Delegates and alternates were also selected to attend the 11th district convention held at London, Feb. 29 and the State convention at Louisville, March 1st. The convention passed resolutions condemning the present national administration, and instructing the delegates to vote for J. Sherman Cooper, of Somerset, and F. F. Robinson, of Barbourville, for delegates to the national convention from the 11th, district, and Charles Finley for member of the State Central Committee, except that they should vote as a unit on all questions. No further instructions were given, and no preference as to the Republican nominee for President was expressed. Following are the names of the delegates: Cam Mullins, R. G. Webb, Dr. M. Pennington, V. C. Tate, W. W. Bethurum, Charles Hurt, Johnny Griffin, E. R. Gentry, R. H. Miller, T. J. Nicely, G. S. Griffin, H. H. Wood, E. Bullock, Jack Abney, Wallace Laswell, S. F. Bowman, U. G. In order that the family might be able to collect the insurance, the Cincinnati Council sent a representative here yesterday, with Sheriff Cam Mullins, and a number of other members of the local councils, under orders of the court went to-day and opened the grave of Harris, who was readily recognized as being the right man, and the insurance, amounting to $500, will be paid promptly. Harris' body was badly mangled at his head, which was cut from the body was uninjured, naturally easily recognized.

The Republicans of Rockcastle County met in mass convention in the court house in Mt. Vernon Feb. 26th, and held an enthusiastic meeting. Precinct Committees were selected to serve for the ensuing four years. Delegates and alternates were also selected to attend the 11th district convention held at London, Feb. 29 and the State convention at Louisville, March 1st. The convention passed resolutions condemning the present national administration, and instructing the delegates to vote for J. Sherman Cooper, of Somerset, and F. F. Robinson, of Barbourville, for delegates to the national convention from the 11th, district, and Charles Finley for member of the State Central Committee, except that they should vote as a unit on all questions. "Uncle Bob" Bates, of Whitesburg, Letcher county Civil War Veteran, ex-sheriff and legislator, is perhaps the most remarkable man in Kentucky. Recently he celebrated his ninety-sixth birthday, enjoys good health, is active and can walk long distances with out fatigue. He has been married three times, and a short time ago became the father of a bright boy, making the twenty-fourth child that has come to bless his name. In speaking of his record, "Uncle Bob" says his descendants number nearly 200 grandchildren, about 150 great grand children. At the recent election he walked to his voting place, seven miles away, and returned before noon, completing the 14-mile journey without the least fatigue. During the unpleasantness between the States "Uncle Bob" cast his fortunes with the South, became a colonel and saw service in many a memorable conflict. At one time several years ago he was elected sheriff of Letcher county and in earlier years served two terms in the Kentucky legislature.

Under the rules of the Jr. O. U. A. M. the insurance on a deceased brother will not be paid unless some member belonging to the same Council as the deceased brother, saw and identified the deceased as being the right person. This being the case the council in Cincinnati to which Elmer Harris who was killed at Winchester about two weeks ago belonged refused payment unless some member of that Council could identify the body as that of Elmer Harris. In order that the family might be able to collect the insurance, the Cincinnati Council sent a representative here yesterday, with Sheriff Cam Mullins, and a number of other members of the local councils, under orders of the court went to-day and opened the grave of Harris, who was readily recognized as being the right man, and the insurance, amounting to $500, will be paid promptly. Rules Committees to Have Charge of Bills Before General Assembly

WILLIAMS IS OUSTED

House Impeachment Proceedings Passed Despite Fight of Meyers—Tax Revenue Bill Is Presented.

Frankfort, Ky.—(Special)—Governor Stanley and his administration backers will use every effort to have passed, during the closing days of the Legislature, those bills promised in the Democratic platform.

And, it is certain that these will be given preference with the Rules Committee of both Houses in charge of those to be voted upon:

The Rules Committee of the Senate has taken charge and will control all bills to be considered by the Senate until the close of the session, which is to be Tuesday, March 14. This committee will determine the order in which the measures are to be taken up and considered. Lieutenant Governor James D. Black is the ex-officio Chairman and the members who were appointed by him are Senators W. W. Booles, Thomas A. Combs, John F. Ford, W. A. Frost, Selden R. Glenn, H. J. Overstreet, Samuel L. Robertson and G. G. Speer. They are all Democrats and the majority of them are friendly to the administration in all things.

During the last ten days of the session, the Rules Committee of the House will have charge of all bills to be considered by the House. This committee is composed of Speaker, H. C. Duffy, and Representatives, Glover H. Cary, R. T. Crowe, W. E. Dowling, Odile Duncan, William Duffy, Frank C. Greene, R. B. Hutchcraft, Jr., C. W. Mathers, Harry J. Meyers, S. M. O'Brien, George L. Pickett, W. A. Price and Joseph D. Pumpfrey. This committee also counts a goodly majority friendly to the administration.

Bills that have passed both Houses follow:

Senate Bill No. 17, the Stricklett Pickett anti-pass law, which was approved by the Governor February 10.

Senate Bill 163, the Knight bill to provide for the employment of State Inspector and Examiner Nat B. Sewell's office force.

House Bill 22, the Hobbs bill to permit cities of the second class to acquire and maintain law libraries.

House Bill No. 2, the Vance corrupt practices act.

House Bill No. 49, the Ryan act creating the office of matron of the Louisville police court.

Senator Rogers' bill No. 111 amending the adoption of school textbooks law.

House Bill No. 75 by Representative Asa B. Pieratt, changing the times for holding circuit court in the Twenty first judicial district.

Representatives of the farmers are insisting upon the enacting of a pure seed law, while Louisville seedmen appear to be opposing it with equal vigor.

The first general measure looking to reform Kentucky's revenue law was introduced in the House by Representative Hutchcraft of Paris, has the support of the administration.

It provides that all taxpayers must swear to property lists before the Assessor or one of his deputies. A penalty is imposed on the Assessor who accepts a list not sworn to.

The measure provides for the examination of candidates for the office of Assessor by two or more members of the State Board of Equalization; and Assessment and unless the candidate passes such an examination his name cannot go on the ballot for election.

The County Board of Supervisors will meet after the Assessor's work and certify to the State Board. The County Board are given greater powers to investigate the ownership of property.

The expense in connection with the State Board is increased from $6,000 to $15,000 under this bill. The backers of the bill are confident that the added revenue will justify this increase in administrative expenses.

J. E. Williams, the Republican County Judge of McCreary County, was impeached by the House of high crimes and misdemeanors, by a vote of 48 to 45.

Democratic floor leader, Harry Meyers of Covington, made a most gallant fight in his endeavor to save Judge Williams from impeachment. He protested vigorously and pleaded for a square deal. He insisted that the Democratic party in Kentucky is "too big, too great, too generous to play that kind of politics."

"The worst thing he has been charged with," said Meyers, "is that he put six Democrats in jail for six hours. I confess I have been guilty of worse things than that. I have helped to put 43 Republicans in jail and to keep them until the election was over, and if it had been necessary, I was ready to put 53 Republicans in jail to help Governor Stanley."

Meyers defied the Impeachment Committee to show any corrupt motive in any irregularity charged to Judge Williams. He declared a County Judge could not be perfect and that the alleged irregularities imputed to Judge Williams were mistake of the head and not the heart.

Upon motion, Speaker Duffy appointed a committee to present articles of impeachment to the Senate. If the impeachment is upheld, Judge Williams will be removed from office, and the Senate may bar him from holding any office of honor, trust or profit, under the Commonwealth. In addition, Judge Williams will be liable to indictment and punishment by the regular courts.

The semi-monthly pay bill, introduced by Representative John T. Murphy, of Covington, passed the House by a vote of 57 to 32.

Representative Greene protested against having bills taken out of their regular order and placed ahead of his anti-screen bill. The House supported Representative Murphy and the bill was reported and passed.

Representative Murphy in his speech supporting the bill declared that 18,000 or 20,000 laboring men are united in favor of the measure.

The motion of Representative Lassley to take the anti-screen bill from the orders of the day and put on its passage was defeated 46 to 41.

The bill of Representative Perry of Louisville, prescribing the manner of electing Commissioners in Jefferson County to constitute the Fiscal Court, passed the House unanimously.

The House resolution, directing the Auditor to refund to saloon keepers who were forced out of business by dry legislation their portion of the unearned license paid the state, passed the Senate 30 to 0. The resolution was called from the orders of the day by Senator Booles of Spencer County.

Petitions are being received by Selma from various counties over the State urging the passage of the bill appropriating $20,000 a year for four years to the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission.

Providing for clerks and stenographers for the Department of Education, a bill passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 72 to 6.

The Court of Appeals recently decided Superintendent of Public Instruction V. O. Gilbert did not have authority to employ any of the clerks and stenographers in his office, and State Auditor Greene refused to issue warrants for the salaries of those who had been employed by Gilbert.

A grand total of $11,050 a year is provided for the employing of ten assistants which includes five clerks and five stenographers.

Representative Minor of Boyle County, succeeded in having passed his joint resolution requesting Kentucky's representatives in Congress to vote against a proposed amendment to the Federal reserve act, undertaking to extend the authority of national banks so they may establish and operate branch institutions. He explained such an amendment is unfair to state banks. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 72 to 6.

— Catarrhal deafness cannot be cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result.

Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's

Catarrhal Cure acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
